Flynn to hold Second Amendment Rally, featuring nationally-renowned gun-rights activist and author Suzanna Hupp

Former Rep. Hupp will be available for a book signing of her latest book, "From Luby's to the Legislature: One Woman's Fight Against Gun Control"

Greenville, TX – State Representative Dan Flynn, R-Van, will hold a rally on Monday, February 1, in support of the Second Amendment and gun rights at the Old Post Office in Greenville. Appearing at the rally is Suzanna Hupp, a former Republican member of the Texas House of Representatives and a recognized public advocate for the Second Amendment and an individual's right to carry a concealed weapon.

Her book, "From Luby's to the Legislature: One Woman's Fight Against Gun Control," details her battle for gun-rights, which was spurred into action when she witnessed the 1991 massacre at a Luby's in Killeen, TX. Suzanna lost her parents in the tragedy, and has fought diligently ever since then to defend a person's right to bear arms. The anger Suzanna felt toward the politicians who legislated her Second Amendment right to carry a concealed weapon prompted her more than a decade stint in the Texas State Legislature defending this very right and becoming our nation's most outspoken Second Amendment champion.

"Suzanna is a friend and colleague, whose courage and conviction about gun-rights I admire. I am honored to welcome her to Greenville for this great event."

Representative Flynn invites everyone to attend the rally, to send a message to Austin and Washington, DC that the Second Amendment is something that the folks of Hunt, Rains, and Van Zandt Counties take very seriously.

Suzanna's book will be available for purchase for $25, and she will be on-hand for a book signing.

Admittance to the rally is free, and begins at 5:30 PM.
